

I had a dog and his name was Blue
I had a dog and his name was Blue
I had a dog and his name was Blue
I bet you 5 dollars he's a good dog too

Here Old Blue you're a good dog you

Blue come a running when I blow my horn
Blue come a running through the yellow corn
Blue come a running when I blow my horn
As 'bout as good a dog as there ever was born

Blue run a possum up an old gum tree
'Bout as big a possum as I ever did see
I run for my gun get my dinner for free
Blue was barking at the possum and grinnin' at me

Old Blue had a collar made of silver and gold
Caught a rabbit every day till he got too old
He'd see my wagon rollin' slow
He'd wag his big tail & come running up the road
